

CANOUAN

ESTATE RESORT & VILLAS

Canouan (pronounced ka-no-wan) is an island in the Grenadines, and one of nine inhabited and more than 20 uninhabited islands and cays which constitute Saint Vincent and The Grenadines. With a population of around 1,700, the small, at 3.5 miles (5.6km) by 1.25 miles (2km) yet inherently captivating island of Canouan is situated 25 miles (40km) South of Saint Vincent. Running along the Atlantic facing aspect of the island is a barrier reef; whilst two bays separate its Southern side. The highest point on Canouan is Mount Royal.
